ADALYA SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

Address for Submission

Adalya is the international peer-reviewed periodical of Koç University Suna & İnan Kırac Research Center for Mediterranean Civilizations (AKMED). Published once a year, Adalya is indexed in A&HCI (Arts & Humanities Citation Index) and CC/A&H (Current Contents / Arts & Humanities) and also indexed in the Social Sciences and Humanities Database of TÜBİTAK / ULAKBİM Tr index. The scope of the periodical covers articles regarding research, study, documentation, and preservation of the Mediterranean cultures as well as interpretation of interrelations between them in the fields of history, archaeology, art history, and other relevant disciplines. The Geographical scope of Adalya covers the entire Mediterranean world from the Strait of Gibraltar to the Eastern Mediterranean coasts and southern Europe to North Africa. This scope is chronologically limited from prehistory through the end of the 19th century. Manuscripts to be submitted are expected to deal with their subject matter holistically and comprehensively to cover comparisons and interpretations, to conform to the criteria of authenticity in scientific and scholarly studies, and to be based on original research.

- Each manuscript should include a maximum of 200 words abstract in Turkish and English.
- 4-6 keywords should be for each manuscript and they should be given at the end of the Turkish and English Abstracts. If these keywords are not a proper name, they must begin with a lowercase letter.

The manuscripts should be sent to adalya@ku.edu.tr

Submission Criteria for Articles

The criteria to be fulfilled by manuscripts submitted to Adalya are as follows:

- Priority and preference are given to manuscripts in American English; however, following the assessment of submitted manuscripts, a maximum of 25 per cent of the articles may be published in German or French. Nevertheless, manuscripts in English shall be given priority.
- The article/s of the same author/s cannot be published in consecutive issues.
- Manuscripts and illustrations (if any) are to be submitted in digital format via wetransfer or e-mail.
- Manuscripts need to be original and meet scientific and scholarly standards as well as based on in depth study and research.
- The bibliography needs to be up-to-date, germane to the subject matter, and of scientific quality. Quotations within the text and citations in footnotes must be relevant.
- Manuscripts must evidence potential for international recognition and citation.
- Attention should be paid that the text of the manuscript does not exceed 20 pages in A4 page format using 12 point Times New Roman font.
- The illustrations (photographs, drawings etc.) should not exceed 10 plates.
- Captions for figures and/or tables, should be inserted after the Bibliography. The captions as well as the sources of photographs and other figures must be provided.

- References to the Bibliography should be made in footnotes, not in the text.
- Do not use abbreviations such as f. or ff. for “following page(s)”; inclusive page references, separated by a hyphen (-), must be cited thus:

7-14	100-4	523-29
46-48	112-14	1004-7
89-112	201-16	1396-430

Inclusive Roman numerals and all dates should be given in full:

xxii-xxxviii cvi-cix AD 312-314 1800-1300 BC

- The caption of Bibliography should be written in 14 points, but not bold. Also, auctions or sale catalogs, online catalogs, collections or archival documents should be given under appropriate subtitles separately at the end of the Bibliography. These sub-headings are written in 12 points and not bold.

- When referring to ancient sources in footnotes, the abbreviations in the Oxford Classical Dictionary (4th edition) should be used.

<https://oxfordre.com/classics/page/abbreviation-list/>

Exp.: ¹ Vitr., De arch. 2.3.3. (for Vitruvius, De architectura 2.3.3.)

- In the text, references to the figures are written in lowercase letters in parentheses, such as fig. 32 or figs. 32, 38, 42-46. Table, on the other hand, is written in full form and in lowercase letters, such as table 9.
- Captions for figures and tables are written in capital letters, such as FIG. or TABLE.
- The following should not be used in the manuscript: ad loc., ibid, idem, loc. cit., op. cit., passim, but use full citations.
- If an alphabet other than the Latin as well as monograms or different fonts are used in the manuscript, the pdf version of the manuscript should also be submitted.
- Artwork submitted in digital format needs to be minimum 300 dpi. Furthermore, the artwork must be sent in JPEG or TIFF format, and NOT embedded in another program such as Microsoft Word. In case the artwork is prepared with Aldus Freehand and Adobe Illustrator, then ensure that it is submitted as prepared and not in a converted format. The sources cited need to be listed alphabetically at the end of the manuscript. If the same author is cited multiple times, these citations must be arranged by date of publication from old to new.
- The initial letter of each word (except prepositions and conjunctions) in the title of manuscript should be written in capital letters; the title should be written in 14 points and bold. Subtitles, if any, are written in 14 points but not bold. Footnotes are written 10 points and regular at the end of each page. Times New Roman font is used throughout the manuscript.
- Long quotations from other sources are given in block form narrowed on both sides without quotation marks or italics.
- When it is necessary to have cross-referenced notes, use “above” and “below” instead of “supra” and “infra”
- Author/s information is given in the following order at the beginning of the footnotes section, with an asterisk in their names.
Title, Name and Surname, University, Department [Address]. E-mail; orcid number.
- Standard Reference Works

An abbreviated format is used to cite selected standard reference works. These works should be referenced in the notes following the formatting examples below and should also be given in the Bibliography in full with author/s or translator/s name under the subtitle of Standard Reference Works:

ABV. J.D. Beazley. 1956. ABV. Oxford: Clarendon Press.

CIL 1(2). CIL. Vol. 1, pt. 2.

IG 2². IG. Vol. 2. 2nd ed.

RE 11 Timandra 1. W. Göber, s.v. Timandra 1, RE 1936. Vol. 11, 1229.

SNG Turkey 9.3. SNG Turkey 9, The Özkan Arıkan Türk Collection. Vol. 3, Mysia, by O. Tekin and A. Erol-Özdizbay. Istanbul / Antalya: TEBE and AKMED.

¹ SNG Turkey 9.3, 282.

- Words of Greek and Latin origin, except the words generally accepted and used in western languages, are written in italics.
- Units of measurement should be abbreviated without a period in the text as follows: g, kg, km, m, cm, mm.
- An n. is used when referring to one footnote, while nn. is used while referring to more than one footnote. Footnote numbers given in the text should always be placed outside the punctuation mark.

For example:

..., thus dating this site to the Upper Paleolithic period.⁴

... his successes there,⁷⁴ and, as we will see, ...

- Authors' names and surnames are given under the title of the manuscript, right aligned, in full form, in capital letters, and 12 points.
- When using slash (/), a space is left before and after.
- While giving volume and issue numbers of periodicals in the Bibliography, Arabic numerals are always used and they are separated by a period with no space from each other with a dot.
- When citing publications written in languages other than English, the words of illustration, figure, table, plate etc. should be translated into English and written in accordance with Adalya Publication Principles.

When referring to a publication, the spelling rules of the language of that publication should be considered (such as uppercase, accent, lowercase and phonemes).

- Author/s names should always be given in Latin letters.
- Most period designations are lowercased:

late antiquity
ancient Greece
imperial Rome

Cultural periods recognized by archaeologists based on characteristic technology or typology are capitalized:

Bronze Age
Archaic period
Late Antique period

The terms "classical" and "archaic" are capitalized only when used with "period" (e.g., Classical period) or with a specific division of a cultural period (e.g., Late Classical literature) or when the meaning can be misconstrued:

Late Archaic art
Early Classical polis classical vase painting
archaic Greek pottery

The names of specific buildings, monuments, parts of sites, and artifact collections/groups are capitalized. The generic form is lowercased:

the East Gymnasium; the gymnasium

the Athenian Agora; the agora

Roman Forum; the forum

Treasury of Athens; Athenian treasury

Wall P

Tomb 4

Room 5

Group D

General excavation nomenclature is lowercased:

stratum 3

level 2

trench A

- Cardinal and ordinal numbers less than 10 should be spelled in full. Arabic numerals should be used for all numbers 10 and above. If a number occurs in a phrase in which most of the numbers are above nine, use Arabic numerals for all:

first century

nine sherds

10th century

11 coins, 15 lamps, and 3 statuettes

- The st, nd, rd, and th used for ordinal numbers should be used as a regular rather than a superscript, such as 1st, 2nd, 3rd.
- Whether in the Bibliography or in the text, the accepted spelling of a city in English is used when naming them, such as Istanbul instead of İstanbul, Vienna instead of Wien, Florence instead of Firenze.
- While giving the publication places of any publication (if it is published in more than one place), the places are given by separating them with a slash (/), such as London / Berlin / New York.

Criteria for the Rejection of Manuscripts

The following points may lead to the rejection of manuscripts; therefore, please pay attention to them.

a) Articles already published or submitted to be published elsewhere.

b) Manuscripts without a letter of permission from the director of excavations or concerned museum directorate to publish excavation materials or museum artifacts respectively.

c) Short texts of one or two pages covering the presentation of archaeological materials or a topic.

d) Reports of excavations or surveys.

e) Catalogs longer than the main text of the article.

f) Preliminary reports based on incomplete research and study, and foreseen to obtain more information with future work.

g) Manuscripts with missing credits for images, or missing permissions from the copyright owners to use images.

h) Manuscripts with an over-citation of popular publications such as handbooks, textbooks, encyclopedias, and web sites, as well as publications of compilation character not containing original research.

Submission and Assessment Process of Manuscripts:

Manuscripts prepared in accordance with our Submission Guidelines need to arrive between September 1-November 30. Submissions arriving after this date shall not be considered. Each manuscript is assessed by a minimum two referees (if necessary, three). Their judgment shall clarify whether the submitted manuscript is acceptable for publication, and the conclusion will be communicated to the author(s) by the end of March.
